

Choice Poetry.

For the Month.

JENNIE'S REPLY TO LILLIAN LEE.

A suggestion past, history has given me no opportunity to make another—see—“Lillian Lee,” “Loving You,” “The Moon,” “The Star,” “The Rose,” “The Love that was a picture,” see the following issue will prove. If “Jennie” ever before proposed anything to the shape of these, “Lillian” was probably not aware of the fact, so don’t make me responsible for her.

Replying to the popular singer.

Lillian, thou art truly welcome,
With all who are a bosom.

Our rapid growth, our success,
And those fine learning pleasure.

Supply poem.

From your pen with an appetite,

“Wistful” “Dare” “Thine,”

“For the return of happy days,”

“To be a Southerner,”

“Meeting in gloomy nature,”

“Farewell,”

“Farewell to the “Wistful” “Dare.”

“Sleeping on thy bed,”

“Never seen or higher done,”

“Thus to see those words of thine,

“Wishes like these,”

“All these,”

Glad I am to value pleasure,

“With the roses of the east,

“And in winter,”

“Back to the waves of ocean,”

“Through I pass,”

“The sea!”

Most fragrant pleasure,

“With my heart’s desire,

“Though I wear that cap of dreams,

“Roses and buds wouldadden,

“Frolics,

“And then come to the sea,

“For the love of beauty still,

“To be a Southerner,”

“Meeting in gloomy nature,”

“Farewell,”

“Farewell to the “Wistful” “Dare.”

“Sleeping on thy bed,”

“Never seen or higher done,”

“Thus to see those words of thine,

“Wishes like these,”

“All these,”

Glad I am to value pleasure,

“With the roses of the east,

“And in winter,”

“Back to the waves of ocean,”

“Through I pass,”

“The sea!”

Most fragrant pleasure,

“With my heart’s desire,

“Though I wear that cap of dreams,

“Roses and buds wouldadden,

“Frolics,

“And then come to the sea,

“For the love of beauty still,

“To be a Southerner,”

“Meeting in gloomy nature,”

“Farewell,”

“Farewell to the “Wistful” “Dare.”

“Sleeping on thy bed,”

“Never seen or higher done,”

“Thus to see those words of thine,

“Wishes like these,”

“All these,”

Glad I am to value pleasure,

“With the roses of the east,

“And in winter,”

“Back to the waves of ocean,”

“Through I pass,”

“The sea!”

Most fragrant pleasure,

“With my heart’s desire,

“Though I wear that cap of dreams,

“Roses and buds wouldadden,

“Frolics,

“And then come to the sea,

“For the love of beauty still,

“To be a Southerner,”

“Meeting in gloomy nature,”

“Farewell,”

“Farewell to the “Wistful” “Dare.”

“Sleeping on thy bed,”

“Never seen or higher done,”

“Thus to see those words of thine,

“Wishes like these,”

“All these,”

Glad I am to value pleasure,

“With the roses of the east,

“And in winter,”

“Back to the waves of ocean,”

“Through I pass,”

“The sea!”

Most fragrant pleasure,

“With my heart’s desire,

“Though I wear that cap of dreams,

“Roses and buds wouldadden,

“Frolics,

“And then come to the sea,

“For the love of beauty still,

“To be a Southerner,”

“Meeting in gloomy nature,”

“Farewell,”

“Farewell to the “Wistful” “Dare.”

“Sleeping on thy bed,”

“Never seen or higher done,”

“Thus to see those words of thine,

“Wishes like these,”

“All these,”

Glad I am to value pleasure,

“With the roses of the east,

“And in winter,”

“Back to the waves of ocean,”

“Through I pass,”

“The sea!”

Most fragrant pleasure,

“With my heart’s desire,

“Though I wear that cap of dreams,

“Roses and buds wouldadden,

“Frolics,

“And then come to the sea,

“For the love of beauty still,

“To be a Southerner,”

“Meeting in gloomy nature,”

“Farewell,”

“Farewell to the “Wistful” “Dare.”

“Sleeping on thy bed,”

“Never seen or higher done,”

“Thus to see those words of thine,

“Wishes like these,”

“All these,”

Glad I am to value pleasure,

“With the roses of the east,

“And in winter,”

“Back to the waves of ocean,”

“Through I pass,”

“The sea!”

Most fragrant pleasure,

“With my heart’s desire,

“Though I wear that cap of dreams,

“Roses and buds wouldadden,

“Frolics,

“And then come to the sea,

“For the love of beauty still,

“To be a Southerner,”

“Meeting in gloomy nature,”

“Farewell,”

“Farewell to the “Wistful” “Dare.”

“Sleeping on thy bed,”

“Never seen or higher done,”

“Thus to see those words of thine,

“Wishes like these,”

“All these,”

Glad I am to value pleasure,

“With the roses of the east,

“And in winter,”

“Back to the waves of ocean,”

“Through I pass,”

“The sea!”

Most fragrant pleasure,

“With my heart’s desire,

“Though I wear that cap of dreams,

“Roses and buds wouldadden,

“Frolics,

“And then come to the sea,

“For the love of beauty still,

“To be a Southerner,”

“Meeting in gloomy nature,”

“Farewell,”

“Farewell to the “Wistful” “Dare.”

“Sleeping on thy bed,”

“Never seen or higher done,”

“Thus to see those words of thine,

“Wishes like these,”

“All these,”

Glad I am to value pleasure,

“With the roses of the east,

“And in winter,”

“Back to the waves of ocean,”

“Through I pass,”

“The sea!”

Most fragrant pleasure,

“With my heart’s desire,

“Though I wear that cap of dreams,

“Roses and buds wouldadden,

“Frolics,

“And then come to the sea,

“For the love of beauty still,

“To be a Southerner,”

“Meeting in gloomy nature,”

“Farewell,”

“Farewell to the “Wistful” “Dare.”